Important information regarding DNA testing

- DNA testing has the potential to result in unexpected outcomes that can have a significant impact on those tested. It is recommended that the implications of the results for you and your family are discussed with a counsellor or legal professional prior to undertaking this test.
- Samples received at Genomic Diagnostics will not be tested unless full payment and a completed application form have been received. Samples will be discarded after four weeks if full payment is not received.
- Test cancellation after DNA collection attracts a fee of $50. Cancellation and refund is not possible once testing has commenced, however, report dispatch can be stopped at the request of those being tested.

How to arrange for testing

You can take a Peace of Mind DNA test in the comfort of your own home. Complete this application form in full. All you need to do is:

1. If you have not already received a kit, contact Genomic Diagnostics Customer Care, info@genomicdiagnostics.com.au or 1800 822 999, to arrange for a collection kit to be sent to your home. Collection kits are sent in discreet packaging via Australia Post.
2. Make payment online at genomicdiagnostics.com.au/order-pay/ or over the phone on 1800 822 999.

3. Collect samples. The collection kit includes instructions on how to take samples at home and return them to Genomic Diagnostics. Please follow collection instructions as failure to do so may result in a recollection of the sample with an additional fee.

Samples

- This test assumes that no one related to the Possible Father could be the Father. If this is not the case you must notify us.
- Reports will be emailed to those listed below, who have provided an email address, within 10 working days. If an email is not provided, a report will be sent by post.
- Reports will not be issued to a minor under the age of 18 years.
- The Applicant will not receive a copy of the report unless they are being tested.
- The report contains: Names, DOB, Date Sample Collected and the Genetic Profile. This information will be provided to all parties requesting a report.
- Your genetic information may be used for statistical purposes. Contact Genomic Diagnostics if you do not wish for this to occur.
- NOTE: This testing is for Peace of Mind only and not to be used for legal purposes. It is assumed that each person providing their sample for testing also provides consent for the testing laboratory to perform the selected test.
